Red Wine - Continued

	Glass Carafe	Bottle
	175ml	500ml 750ml
59. Saperavi 2007 Kondoli Georgia		35.00
Pure top end Saperavi makes this the classic wine from Georgia
60. Saint Nicolas de Bourgueil 'Les Rouillères' 2009, Frederic Mabileau		35.00
Pretty nose of raspberry and fresh greenery. Fresh and round with ripe tannins and a characteristic note of graphite. Good length; greatly pleasurable to drink.
61. Canon-Fronsac 2005 Château du Pavillon		37.00
This has lovely purity of fruit combined with a delicious classic gravelly character of Bordeaux
62. Egri Bikaver 2007 Korona Borhasz, Hungary		37.00
Dry quality red wine (60% Kekfrankos, 20% Merlot, 20% Cabernet Sauvignon). With its deep ruby color and velvety, spicy aroma, this wine is a popular choice for the refined wine consumer. It is traditionally fermented on the skin in holding vats, and bottled after a long period of aging in oak barrels.
63. Corpus 2008 Gabriela Canossa, Douro, Portugal		37.00
This is a fantastic deep, rich and complex wine from the Douro – you would pay a lot more for it if it came from the other side of the border in Spain. Highly recommended.
64. The Liberator 'The Unsung Hero' 2008 Swartland South Africa		38.00
Rich and concentrated with plenty of red-black fruit. Its time in barrel has softened the once brisk tannins of the Syrah and Mourvèdre, bestowing a softer profile on the wine.
65. Blaufrankisch Konigsberg 2008 Uwe Schiefer Sudburgenland, Austria		38.00
Uwe Schiefer is recognised as the best producer of Blaufränkisch. In style it is Burgundian, very pure, red berry nose with a savoury edge.
66. Malbec 2009 Alpamanta Estate, Mendoza, Argentina		42.00
"Everyone's favourite new grape, and tasting the juice, structure, and meaty texture to this wonderful, bio-dynamic, Argentine number, it is easy to see why."
67. Crozes-Hermitage 2008 Philippe Desmeure		43.00
100% Syrah. The Desmeure wines are the embodiment of elegance and finesse.
68. Chateau Civrac 2006 Cotes De Bourg		43.00
Seductive nose of ripe red berry fruit, the wine is soft and velvety, with supple tannins
69. Tom's Block, Pinot Noir 2008 Neudorf Estate. Nelson, New Zealand		45.00
Really good Pinot Noir with plum, dark cherry, spicy oak and a hint of lavender. Perfect for Meat Dishes
70. Château-Neuf-du-Pape 2004 Domaine Jean Paul Versino		50.00
Classic Châteauneuf with lovely flavours of herbs &amp; peppery spice.
71. Chateau Grand Pey Lescours 1999 Grand Cru St Emillion		60.00
Deep crimson in colour, just starting to reveal its age. A heady nose of red berry fruit, vanilla and notes of coffee, followed by a palate of raspberries, red cherry and chocolate, supported by a good acidic structure and silky tannins. Pair with red meats and hard cheeses.
72. Santenay Les Champs Claude 2006 Jean-Marc Pillot		65.00
The southern tip of the Cote d'Or gives rise to a crisp, crunchy style of red burgundy, as opposed to a succulent, velvet number.
73. Brunello di Montalcino 2005 Pietroso		65.00
Expect earthy, dusty aromas of Tuscany followed by classic brambley, blackberry fruit &amp; long finish.
74. Pommard 1er Cru Rugiens, 2004 Joseph Voillot		75.00
If there was one vineyard in the commune of Pommard that might be up-graded to Grand Cru, Rugiens would be the one. Rich, mineral, yet succulent, Pinot Noir."
76. Clos du Marquis 1995 Chateau Leoville Las Cases, Saint Julien		80.00
The second wine of renowned 2nd Growth, Leoville Las Cases, and this has the trademark cedar and minerality of the appellation
77. Chateau Pavie Macquin, Grand Cru Classe 1995 Saint Emilion Grand Cru		95.00
A sturdy glass of right bank claret (70% Merlot), but the tannin has started to melt away, and the mature, savoury fruit has now come to the fore.
